

Babylon

A nervous captain waits impatiently for his last passengers, all refugees. They try to board at any cost the last boat to Babylon, the promised land.

Some manage to get aboard. Others are left behind.

The boat sinks and goes under. Who will survive, who will not?

God and his Son and the Devil try to intervene. But they don't really know how, because "sometimes Bad can turn out Good and Good can turn out Bad".
