

Figure Section

Figure Section is a duo created in 2018 by Olivia Carrère and Yannick Franck, whilst they were working together on the creation of the show LIFE : RESET/ Chronique d'une ville épuisée by Fabrice Murgia.

Influenced by the Cold Wave movement (which emerged at the end of the 1970s) and Synth-pop (early 1980s), they are on the outlook for a sound which is up-to-the-minute, dynamic yet which embraces an ever-so nostalgic touch. Although profound revolt persists deep in the group's sensitivity and although its chosen themes embrace dark romanticism, it is also in a certain sense salvific of the irony, the absurd humour and the cathartic celebration which it asserts.

In conjunction with prevailing musical trends, the duo embraces a musical practice overflowing with intense sincerity and a forthcoming nature. Simplicity which the group deems as essential: Figure Section's music is the creation of effective beats and basslines as well as the unveiling of a certain fragility in the voices, the texts and the arrangements.
