

Music for Trees

Orchestra ViVo! pay tribute to Garrett List

Episode 1 – Garrett List | Paul Paquay - Adrien Lambinet & Manu Louis

— World premiere in Liège with four events —

Music for Trees is an ode to trees around the world and captures the artist's open-mindedness, eclecticism and humanism. The three hour piece hasn't yet been performed in full. The Orchestra ViVo! musicians and figures on the Liège music scene are taking on the challenge in a four-stage tribute to Garrett List, who passed away in December 2019.

8.15pm: Conference by Daan Vandewalle

Based on the theme: Post-modernism in 70s NYC.

Profile of music by post-modern New York composers in the 70s - Anthony Braxton, Frédéric Rzewski, Steve Lacy, Karl Berger, Carla Bley, Garrett List - and the historical importance of a generation that did so much in such a short space of time.

Daan Vandewalle is a Ghent pianist who specialises in new music and improvisation. He has performed pieces written especially for him by Frédéric Rzewski, Alvin Curran and Fred Frith.

9.15pm: Concert - Music for Trees

Episode 1 – intimate music performed by Orchestra ViVo!

Pieces for saxophone soloists, string quartets etc.

10pm: DJ set by Manu Louis

Based on the same theme: Post-modernism in 70s NYC.

Film screening (non-stop in the studio)

Charline Caron, La musique souvent me prend comme une mer, poetic portrait, 2005.

Cédric Renwa, Pieces of W - Garrett List, NOW magazine video report, 2015 and concert excerpts.

► FEBRUARY 10 – 8.15PM – MANEGE FONCK

Tickets: 16€ on-site – 12€ advance

EXC. ABO/PASS